Bill McLaren ('the voice of rugby') – More Classic Quotes:

"He can smell a try like a forest animal". "The All Blacks that day looked like great prophets of doom." "And it's a try by Hika the hooker from Ngongotaha." (Wales v New Zealand 1980). I think he also described trying to tackle Jonah Lomu as trying to tackle a snooker table. "I've seen bigger legs hanging out of a crow's nest". "Safe as houses; warm as toast" after a Gavin Hastings clearance kick. On Doddie Weir (and told by Doddie) "Doddie Weir as much help as a lighthouse in the desert". On another lineout jumper "Jumping like a border salmon in a river".
